Comments
Connection of material to real world events
Great lectures, good fast pace with lots of avenues to get help, and concepts are explained in context of funny fake examples or important real examples that are engaging.
Strengths were that we were able to ask many questions and have them answered,
The professors
Clarity of instruction

Please identify area(s) where you think the course could be improved.

Comments
More practice material, like Problem Sets and Practice exams
Macro section flies by.
More examples and in depth analysis of lectures.
The powerpoints and possibly posting the section handouts online so students have access to it.
Could echo what professors think are important topics

What advice would you give to another student who is considering taking this course?

Comments
Make sure to go to section and lecture
Go to all lectures and sections, really try to understand basis for tools used.
Good discussion section and could be valuable depending on how the student learns best.
It is a lot of material in a short amount of time. Study often
